

History Homework Projects

Y7Review1

Create a mini series storyboard and script for a scene based on a group you have studied in the last 3 cycles. The Romans, The Vikings or The Tudors.

Yr7Review2

The big debate “Charles versus Cromwell” Plan and organise a public debate between the two major figures of the time period about what they believe and how they think England should be governed.

History Review Weeks

Y8Review1

Write a journal from the front about your experiences of war. This can be a diary or a series of postcards based on your studies of WW1.

Yr8Review2

Write a journal from the front about your experiences of war. This can be a diary or a series of postcards based on your studies of WW2.

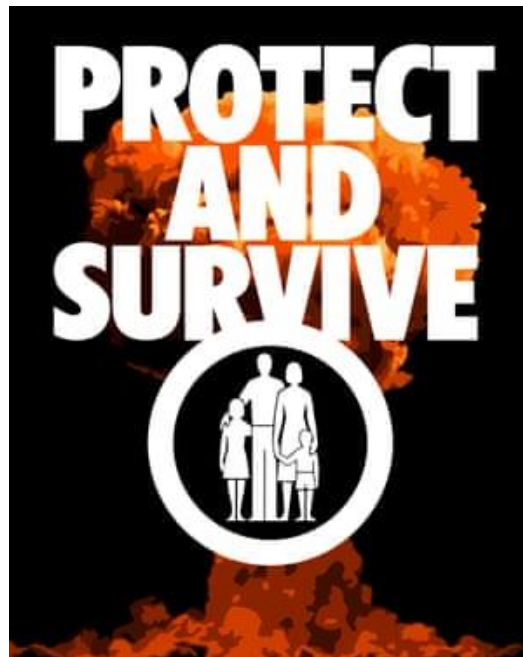

History Review Weeks

Y9Review1

Write a guidebook to multicultural Britain. It could include art, cuisine, fashion, sport. It must have information of the origins and heritage of those that influenced the modern day.

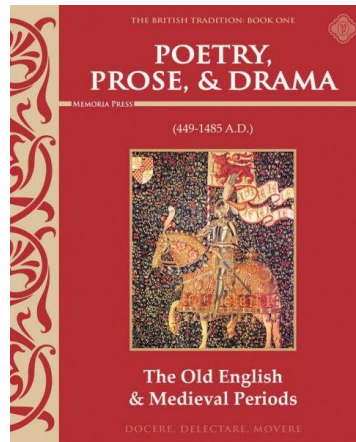

Yr9Review2

Design your own guide to "Protect and Survive" advising the British population on the threats posed by nuclear war.

History Review Weeks

Y10Review1

Create some Anglo-Saxon poetry based on scenes from daily life. The poems could be published in the Anglo-Saxon Chronicle.

Y10Review2

Create a smuggling map of England. Show the busy areas of illegal imports. Incorporate the attempts made by the government to prevent such activity.

History Review Weeks

Y11Review1

Create a visitors guide to Weimar Berlin. Include information about the radical art scene and fantastic fun and exuberance of the mid to late 20's.

Y11Review2

Investigating the 1936 Olympic games. Write a dossier on what visitors should have gathered from seeing Berlin in 1936. Were signs there that the Nazi regime was a terrible and dubious entity?